

47A

ESSAY MARKING SHEET

Student identifying number _____

Essay title _____

Marks have been awarded for the following:

A) A clear concise introduction that illustrates what the Essay will contain. 15 marks.

There is little or no introduction and can therefore only receive a maximum of 3 out of 15

Maximum Marks for the introduction is 15 marks. The actual mark is-

Comment:

B) Main Body of the work- The theories are clearly linked to the Essay and the main body of the Essay is coherent and flows. The student uses good personal illustrations that demonstrate a good level of understanding of the topic. A maximum of 10 marks for each of the three core modalities. Answering the question well and use of other relevant theories 30 marks. Maximum 60 Marks.

Marks will be deducted if-

- The main body of the Essay does not flow well and the student has limited use of the theories up to 30 marks deduction
- And not included personal experience up to 10 marks deduction
- The main body of the essay lacks unity and is disjointed up to 10 marks deduction

Maximum marks for the main body of the essay is 60 marks.

The actual mark is-

Comment:

C) The conclusion of the Essay is a good summary of the main salient points introduced described and examined in the main body of the text. 15 marks.

Continue on the next page.

47B

ESSAY MARKING SHEET (PART 2)

Student identifying number _____

Essay title _____

Marks will be deducted if-

- The conclusion is limited and does not link well to the text. Maximum mark 10
- The conclusion is absent and the essay ends abruptly. Maximum mark 5

Maximum Marks for the conclusion of the essay is 15 marks. The actual mark is-

Comment:

D) Other elements.

The Harvard referencing system is good and the references are up to date and relevant. Maximum 5 marks.

Overall professionalism of the essay (including spell check & care) Maximum 5 marks.

Maximum marks for these elements is 10 marks. The actual mark is-

Comment:

Markers operate a positive marking criterion and will endeavour to round up marks where ever appropriate and possible.

Please note: deferred rewrites to be in a different font colour.

Late submissions, unless having a satisfactory and approved mitigation letter, will be marked only as pass or defer, without markers comments.

Unauthorised late submissions will incur a £25 postage and marker fee.

Total mark for the essay is-

Markers comments